Changes for the 2021-2022 Academic Year

- ❖ The tuition rates for the 21-22 year did not increase; however, the rates reflect the 2019-2020 academic rates prior to COVID-19
- ❖ The Student Activities Fee has increased from $138 per semester to $150 per semester. The Student Activities Fee is paid by all full-time undergraduate, graduate, and English Language Institute students and this fee is dedicated to student extracurricular programming and services that enhance all aspects of student life at Gallaudet University. The Student Activities Fee is administered by the Division of Student Affairs with support of the Student Body Government and the Graduate Student Association.
- ❖ The Health Services Fee has increased from $125 per semester to $250 per semester. The health service fee ensures full-time, actively enrolled students, unlimited access to Student Health Service (SHS). Students will receive treatment without incurring any additional costs, such as deductibles or copays, etc. There is no charge for medicines or medical supplies dispensed by SHS.
- ❖ A new fee, Technology Fee, will be implemented beginning Fall 2021. The technology fee, managed by Gallaudet Technology Services (GTS), will support provisioning of a technology devices(ex. iPad Pro with Pencil or Macbook Air with M1 Chip)
